

Provision of the Vice-Dean for doctoral studies No. 9 On support for PhD candidates supervised by FSc USB key employees

In accordance with the Scholarship Regulations of USB, the support for a given calendar year is paid in the form of a scholarship for outstanding research, development and innovation, or other creative results contributing to the deepening of knowledge to the PhD candidates, who meet the following conditions:

- The PhD candidate is in full-time study of the 2nd year or higher and is supervised by a key employee of the faculty*
- The PhD candidate has fulfilled all the obligations set by the ISP during the previous year and the annual report has been evaluated by the Specialist Board with a grade of "A"
- The study did not exceed the standard study period, i.e. 4 years

The amount of the scholarship for each calendar year is decided by the Dean. For the year 2024 it is set at CZK 3000 per month and the scholarship can be paid retroactively.
